

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CAS InterGlobal to Showcase at Gulfood 2024

Pleasanton, CA – January 22, 2024

CAS InterGlobal, a leading player in the export of US grocery items, is set to participate in the prestigious Gulfood 2024 exhibition, scheduled to take place from February 19-23, 2024 in Dubai. This marks a significant stride for the company as it leverages this platform to showcase its extensive capabilities in catering to the diverse needs of the global market.

Established in 2013 and headquartered in the San Francisco Bay Area, CAS InterGlobal has emerged as a key player in facilitating the international expansion of renowned US grocery brands. The company has forged strategic partnerships with various brands such as Kraft Heinz, Safeway/Albertsons, Peanut Butter & Co., Sugar Bowl Bakery, Kinder's, Hain Celestial Food, Pik Nik, and others.

At Gulfood 2024, CAS InterGlobal aims to highlight its commitment to excellence in export. The company's booth will serve as a hub for networking and collaboration, providing a unique opportunity for industry professionals to explore potential partnerships and gain insights into the latest trends in the grocery export sector.

"We are excited to participate in Gulfood 2024, a premier event that brings together industry leaders from around the world. This platform allows us to showcase our expertise, strengthen existing partnerships, and explore new avenues for collaboration," said Sammie Xiao, the CEO at CAS InterGlobal.

In addition to its role as a leading exporter, CAS InterGlobal acts as the US sourcing agent for major retailers worldwide, including Walmart, Sam's Club, Carrefour, Amazon, Homeplus, Emart, Lulu, and more. The company's comprehensive services encompass direct sourcing, domestic and international logistics, compliance, and documentation, positioning it as a trusted one-stop partner for businesses seeking seamless solutions.

Gulfood 2024 attendees are invited to visit the CAS InterGlobal booth (#S3-14) to learn more about the company's diverse portfolio, industry-leading practices, and collaborative opportunities.

For media inquiries, please contact:

Catherine Kim

Director of New Business Development

catherine@casinterg.com

1-925-401-7111x227