

Acquaroma: Healthy Innovation for All Ages at Gulfood 2024

Gulfood 2024 enthusiastically welcomes the arrival of Acquaroma, the company that is setting new standards in the world of hydration. But Acquaroma doesn't only focus on adults: the company is determined to involve all age groups, offering a healthy and irresistible option even for the younger public.

With a range of authentic and fascinating flavours, Acquaroma proves that hydration can be a pleasure, regardless of age. From berries that transport the palate on a summer walk, to the freshness of mint that revives the senses, Acquaroma offers a world of taste experiences. And since Acquaroma is committed to promoting healthy lifestyles, all flavours are sugar-free, calorie-free and dye-free. This makes Acquaroma a smart choice for families looking for a tasty and healthy alternative.

Gulfood 2024 represents an opportunity for generations of today and tomorrow to discover that drinking water is not only a necessity but can also be a delightful adventure. The company proves that hydration doesn't have to be boring but can be a source of pleasure and discovery. Join Acquaroma at Anuga and discover how the company is breaking down the barriers of traditional hydration, bringing an engaging and tasty experience to all ages.
