TRENDS IN THE CONFECTIONERY MARKET

NIELSEN COMPANY, 2024

1 HEALTHY LIFESTYLE

confectionery categories with a focus on natural ingredients and low sugar levels continue to grow, supporting consumer interest in healthy alternatives.

2 SWITCHING TO LOCAL PRODUCTS

consumers began to support Russian brands more, which is due to an increase in the share of local goods in retail. This allows domestic players to successfully replace the departed international manufacturers.

3 DIVERSIFICATION OF THE PRODUCT RANGE

domestic manufacturers are expanding their product lines to compensate for the reduction in imports. The trend of product complication returns to the market of flour confectionery products: with the addition of glaze, sprinkles, interlayers, fillings, etc.

4 ORIENTATION ON PREMIUMITY

In response to the requests of more demanding consumers, the offer of premium products such as high-quality cookies and chocolates and exclusive dessert lines is increasing.

5 QUICK SNACKS

Mobility or the to go format has gained wide popularity due to the accelerating pace of life in big cities. People are less likely to stay anywhere to have a good lunch, preferring to take a snack with them.

It is said that in ancient times, the Firebird gifted the world with its unearthly sweetness hidden in the legendary "pigeon's milk". Inspired by this fairy tale, confectioners HURRAY CONFECTIONERS have created "Firebird Milk" - sweets where the most delicate, airy filling is wrapped in silky chocolate glaze. Each candy is a touch of wonder, like a Firebird feather, giving a taste familiar to everyone since childhood.

URAL METEORITE
a unique dessert in honor of the meteorite fall

SHELF LIFE
3-6 months

3 types of desserts

On a frosty February day in 2013, the sky over Chelyabinsk burst into blinding light. A guest from distant worlds was rushing from heaven to earth — a meteorite harboring ancient cosmic power and the magic of the universe.

In honor of this incredible event, the technologists of URAL CONFECTIONERY created unique candies "Ural meteorite". Each candy is a small sweet meteorite, which contains sparks of the very magic and mystery brought to earth by the meteorite. The chocolate coating symbolizes the night sky, and the bright, juicy and unusual taste of roasted peanuts is a small explosion of taste sensations, like a memory of a flash in the sky of Chelyabinsk.
